20.1. It is further agreed that, if the rent shall be twenty-five (25) days in arrears, County shall have the right to distrain for the same, and to re-enter and take possession; and if the Tenant shall violate any of the foregoing covenants, the County shall have the right to re-enter and take possession; provided, however, that except for the non-payment of rent, in no event shall County exercise its remedies for default hereunder unless and until County shall have given Tenant written notice of such default, and the default shall remain uncured for a period of thirty (30) days after receipt by Tenant of such written notice.

21. TENANT'S COVENANTS

21.1. Tenant hereby covenants with the said County to pay the rent as aforesaid, to keep and maintain the Premises in good order, and to surrender the peaceful and quiet possession of the same at the end of the said term, in as good condition as when received (the natural wear and decay of the property and improvements thereon excepted). its term, that it is and will remain duly incorporated, that it is authorized according to its charter, by- laws, and/or other organizational documents and agreements, if any, to enter into this Lease, that all conditions, approvals, and consents shall have been validly provided and obtained, and that its corporate officer(s) shall have validly obtained actual corporate authority from the Tenant to execute any and all documents required by County.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is agreed that any default under Section 2 in the payment of rent must be cured within thirty (30) days and is not subject to the requirement of prior written notice of default under this Section 22.

22.1.4. The making by Tenant of any general assignment or general arrangement for the benefit of creditors; (ii) the filing by or against Tenant of a petition to have Tenant adjudicated a bankrupt or a petition for reorganization or rearrangement under any law relating to bankruptcy unless, in the case of a petition filed against Tenant, the same is dismissed within forty-five (45) days; (iii) the appointment of a trustee or receiver to take possession of substantially all of Tenants assets located at the Premises or of Tenants interest in this Lease, where possession is not restored to Tenant within thirty (30) days; or (iv) the attachment, execution or other judicial seizure of substantially all of Tenants assets located at the Premises for Tenants interest in this Lease, where such seizure is not discharged within thirty (30) days.

In such event County shall be entitled to recover from Tenant all damages incurred by County by reason of Tenant's default, including, but not limited to, the cost of recovering possession of the Premises; expenses of the re-letting, including necessary renovation and alteration of the Premises; County's reasonable attorneys fees and brokerage commissions incurred in connection with such re-letting; the present worth, at the time of the award by the court, of the amount by which the unpaid rent and other charges payable hereunder for the balance of the Term at the time of such award exceeds the amount of such rental loss for the same period which Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided; and interest on unpaid rent or other sums payable by Tenant under the provisions of this Lease from the date the same became due at the rate of fifteen (15%) per annum. In the event Tenant abandons the Premises, County shall have the option of (i) retaking possession of the Premises and recovering from Tenant the amount specified in this Section 23.1.1 or proceeding under Section 23.1.2.

23.1.2. Maintain Tenant's right to possession, in which case this Lease shall continue in effect whether or not Tenant has abandoned the Premises. In such event, County shall be entitled to enforce all of County's rights and remedies under this Lease, including the right to recover all rent and other charges as they become due hereunder.
